

LUTHERAN LADIES AT LUNCHEON

More than 125 members and friends of Lutheran Missionary Society enjoyed an attractively appointed luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink, Jr. The affair was a benefit for the Lutheran church. Assisting Mrs. Hannebrink on the luncheon committee were Mrs. Margaret Dobrick of Redondo, Dorothy Mearing, Jo Mathieson, Helene Miller, Ruth Claus while Mrs. Jane Dennis, Helen Tavan and B. F. Hannebrink, Sr., served. In charge of the food sale were Mrs. Carl Carlson and Victor Anderson.

The committee members wish to thank all who assisted in making the party a success.

CLIFFORD DONATI IS NOW THREE

The third birthday of Clifford Donati was celebrated with a party Monday at his home, 2325 Sierra ave. At the luncheon table, decorated with spring flowers and enhanced with a pink and white decorated birthday cake, places were set for Clifford, Johnny Reid, Mary Margaret McKinley, Bobby Kulp, Violeta and Orville Bill Stanfield, Bill Diesel and Beverly Jean Folts. Group pictures and a play period furnished the afternoon diversion. Clifford was showered with toys and gifts.

Mrs. Ida Miers of Forsyth, Montana is a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Charles Ward.

METHODIST LADIES AT SPRING LUNCHEON

One hundred and fifteen ladies attended the spring luncheon given by the Woman's Society of Christian service in the Methodist church last Thursday. Colorful flowers formed the centerpiece for the tables. Following several vocal numbers by Mrs. Selma Ostie of Compton, Mrs. Grace Hooper, president, introduced Mrs. Byron Wilson of Los Angeles, guest speaker.

Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Carr in Long Beach Thursday, May 1. The business meeting will be held at 10:30 a. m., luncheon to follow.

Circle No. 2 will meet at the home of Mrs. Brockhauser, 1524 Acacia st. Thursday, May 1, at 2 p. m. Mrs. William Creighton will be co-hostess.

MRS. MONTAGUE IS CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Virginia Montague was hostess when she entertained members of the Art-Craft club at her home in the Villa Soudora apartments last Friday evening. Mrs. Hazel Jain was a club guest and 12 members were present. Following an evening spent at aircraft work refreshments were served.

MRS. GARNER TO HEAD FERN AVE. P.T.A.

Mrs. John Garner was elected president of the Fern Avenue P.T.A. Tuesday and other officers chosen were:

J. J. Millard, first vice-president; Lillian Billups, second vice-president; D. B. Moser, third vice-president; Micheal Strasser, secretary; D. A. Murphy, treasurer; A. C. Steele, financial secretary; W. G. Hammack, historian, and A. C. Turner, auditor.

A symposium on "Health in the Home" in which a doctor, a school nurse, a teacher and a mother participated, was instructive. A Rhythm Band demonstrated by Mrs. Jackson's first graders was enjoyed.

Delegates elected to attend Lomita-San Pedro Council were Mrs. Holmes, Turner, Stevens, Moore, Myers, Stamps, Hammack and Millard. At the table, beautiful with pink snapdragons, Mrs. Fred Fischer and Oscar Olson poured.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Page were Miss Violet Hilton and Dick Gardner.

Dr. W. J. Harrison returned Monday from a business trip to Chicago and Pittsburgh, Pa.

CROQUET CLUB AT SAN DIMAS

Members of the Croquet Club were entertained at the new home of Mrs. L. N. Pierce at San Dimas Tuesday. Those present were Mrs. W. F. Burgener, H. M. Haynes, L. E. Snodgrass, A. P. Stevenson, L. V. Babcock, L. D. Babcock, Melvina Beckwith and William Gascogne.

TORRANCE GIRL IN ORATORIO

Miss Betty McFarlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McFarlin, will take part in Bach's "The Passion According to St. Matthew" which will be presented April 29 at 8:15 p. m. in the Occidental college Thorne Hall by the college music department under the direction of Howard Swan.

PHILATHEAS MEET AT PAXTON HOME

Members of the Philathea, Sunday school group of Methodist church, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Russell Paxton, 707 Cota ave. for a potluck supper and meeting. Following a short business session, a social hour was enjoyed. Fifteen members and two guests were present.

London Mother, Baby, Go Shopping in Gas Drill

This is what motherhood means in London these days. This young mother, with basket, went shopping during gas mask drill. Note elaborate protection for infant against deadly weapon Britain fears Hitler will not hesitate to use when he thinks it is necessary to "soften" his victims for invasion. Britain has been tightening up gas protection measures. (UP from Universal Newsreel)

Gas Appliance Dealers Enjoy Mountain Outing

Twenty-two members of the Electrolux and Gas Appliance dealers of the Southern Division and their families, enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Law of Lynwood at their mountain cabin above Forest Home Lodge last weekend. Messrs. and Mesdames Fred Ripper of Gardena, A. McAllister of El Segundo, Fay Parks of Torrance and Harold McAllister of Lynwood had dinner at Britt's in Lynwood, then joined the Laws Saturday evening, at their cabin while the rest of the party arrived in time to enjoy Fay Parks' famous hot-cakes for breakfast Sunday. These included Messrs. and Mesdames Harry Abramson of Torrance, Frank Trechter of Compton, Alvin Reed, and E. A. Reed of Bellflower.

Most of the day was spent hiking above Big Falls. A sudden but brief snow storm added to the delight of the hikers. The climax of the outing was a delicious trout dinner cooked by Law. The next dinner meeting of the Association will be May 13 at the White Gate Cafe in Compton.

FLIERS SCATTERED
CANNBERRA, Australia —(U.P.)—Royal Australian air force squadrons are flying in six countries—Australia, England, Middle East, Canada, Rhodesia and Malaya—it was officially announced here.

Western Auto Getting 'Face Lifting' Job

The Western Auto Supply Store at 1273 Sartori ave. is to have its "face lifted."

In addition to a general remodeling of the front, the balcony will be removed and more space made available to Manager E. E. Murchison for display of additional merchandise.

According to J. C. Smith of the Torrance Investment Company, the improvement is expected to cost approximately $300. The work was started today.

Sons of Legion Will Give Program at H. S.

"How Subversive Organizations Work in High Schools and Colleges" will be revealed by Carroll Parish, captain of the Fourth Area Sons of the Legion, next Thursday morning at a general assembly of Torrance high school students. The program will be sponsored by the Torrance squadron of the Sons of the Legion. Parish is said to have many unusual facts to speak on concerning the activities of unAmerican groups undermining young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bover and daughter Joyce, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Shriner, enjoyed a picnic party at Sunland Sunday. Later they were entertained by Los Angeles friends.

Council Cancels Rent Of Aud for Coordinators

Poor attendance at the student dance last Friday night caused the Coordinating Council to incur a deficit. However, the city council—when advised of the Coordinators' loss Tuesday night—agreed to cancel the rent on the Civic Auditorium that night. This assistance was in line with the promise made to the Coordinators by Mayor Tom McGuire April 10 that the city would help out whenever the dances are operated at a loss.

Increase Storage Facilities at Ideal Market

Increasing business at the Ideal Ranch Market at 2067 Torrance Blvd. has made it necessary to double the warehouse space for storage of reserve foodstuffs. The additional space is now being made available in the form of an addition that is costing approximately $500 to construct, according to J. C. Smith, lessor of the building.

CURFEW LAW IGNORED
SANDUSKY, O. (U.P.)—A 30-year-old curfew ordinance is still on the Sandusky statute books but has not been operative since a newly constructed water works plant was placed in operation last fall. No provision has been made for blowing the 9 o'clock curfew whistle at the new pumping station.
